Safety is very important for everyone working in the exhibit hall, especially you!

Raphael's Convention Services is committed to safety for everyone involved in the work that we do. We request that you make safety a priority in your activities throughout the show. If you see something unsafe or that presents a hazard, please bring it to our attention. By reporting hazardous conditions, you will help make the show safer and more enjoyable for yourself and other exhibitors.

Below, you will find a list of guidelines that we ask you to follow while at the show site. These guidelines will enhance the safety of the show and its participants and help to prevent any injuries.

- Exhibitors should treat the show area during move-in and move-out as they would a construction site. Appropriate attire includes footwear with hard soles that protect against potential injuries from site debris and limits the potential for a slip or a fall. Heels, flip flops and open-toed shoes are inappropriate and violate safety standards.
- Smoking is prohibited except in designated areas. Please be sure all cigarettes are fully extinguished.
- Stand on chairs, tables or other furniture is prohibited. The furniture is not designed to support your standing weight. Please use a ladder or ask RCS for assistance.
- RCS forklifts, boomlifts and other machinery are to be used by RCS personnel only.
- Be aware of forklifts moving throughout the aisles and around loading docks, especially while they are carrying a load.
- Never run in the exhibit hall. Watch your step in the aisles and take care while moving through the loading dock area.
- Electrical wires and cords can be hazardous if frayed or stretched over a walkway. Please check cords for damage. Notify RCS or the contracted electrical suppliers if you need assistance repairing or removing a damaged cord. Do not overload outlets.
- Please keep fire exits clear. Report any fires immediately or pull the nearest fire alarm.
- If you spill something or notice a spill, clean it up or report it to RCS immediately. Please do not walk away from a spill.
- Use good housekeeping. Dispose of waste properly and keep materials stacked securely.
- Keep aisles free and clear at all times. Please use your booth space to store and work in while preparing your booth.
- Protect your valuables while on the show floor. Please keep all expensive or valuable items secured.
- Notify an RCS representative of any safety issues or concerns.

25th Annual Spring Home / Garden Show - Del Mar Fairgrounds - March 5 – 7, 2010

VI. RCS Liability for Loss or Damage to Goods (cont'd)

Excess Declared Value: If customer wishes a higher limitation of liability than stated above for loss or damage to property that occurs during the show, the customer may do so by declaring a value in the space provided on the RCS services order form(s) and also on the material handling order form and paying the appropriate additional charge in advance of the commencement of services by RCS. Maximum liability for damages resulting from RCS' negligence shall then be increased to the amount declared, but in no case shall it exceed the depreciated value of the goods or repair costs, whichever is less.. In case of partial loss or damage, the maximum liability shall be prorated based on weight. Excess declared value is not for plasma screens or other fragile electronic equipment, original art or prototypes. The declared value may never exceed $100,000 for the purpose of this provision and RCS' liability in all circumstances shall be limited to the amount of this cap.

No Insurance: RCS is not an insurance company and does not offer or provide insurance. It is the obligation of the customer to ensure goods are insured at all times. Loss or theft of the goods in storage or in transit to and from the show and or while on the show floor is the sole responsibility of the customer, unless it is shown that RCS performed in a manner that constitutes gross negligence in the performance of its services for the customer.

Notice of Loss or Damage: In order to have a valid claim, notice of loss or damage to goods must be given to RCS or its agent within 24 hours of occurrence or delivery of goods, whichever is later.

Filing of Claim: Any claim for loss or damage to goods must be in writing, containing facts sufficient to identify the goods, asserting liability for alleged loss or damage and making claim for the payment of a specified or determinable amount of money. Such claim must be filed with the appropriate party within the time limits specified below. Damage reports, incident reports, inspection reports, notations of shortage or damage on freight bills or other documents do not constitute filing of a claim. Claims for goods alleged to be lost, stolen or damaged at the show site must be received in writing by RCS within 60 days after the close of the show. Claims for goods alleged to be lost or damaged during transit must be received by the responsible party within 9 months of date of delivery of goods. RCS subcontracts the movement of goods to third party carriers. Claims for damage in transit should be made directly with the customer's carrier as shown on the material handling form or bill of lading. In the event of a dispute with RCS, customer will not withhold payment or any amount due RCS for services as on offset against the amount of the alleged loss or damage. Customer agrees to pay RCS prior to the close of show for all such charge and further agrees that any claim customer may have against RCS shall be pursued independently by customer as a separate action to be resolved on its own merits. RCS retains the right to pursue collection on amounts owed after show close without regard to any amount alleged to be owed for damage or loss.

Filing of Suit: Any action at law regarding loss or damage to goods must be filed within two years of the date of declination of any part of a claim.

VII. Jurisdiction / Choice of Forum

This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the applicable laws of the United States or, alternatively, and depending on jurisdiction, the laws of the State of California. The parties hereby submit to jurisdiction and venue in the United States Federal District Court of California.

RCS is not liable for the mechanical functions of instruments or appliances even if such articles are packed or unpacked by RCS.. →

In no event shall RCS be liable for special, incidental, indirect or consequential damages, including business loss of any kind, resulting from any damage to or loss of the goods or from any act or failure to act. Customer pays storage fees, if any or costs for advance warehousing for use of the space only. There is no guarantee of security or representations made by RCS as to appropriateness of the conditions for exhibitors' material. The risk of loss remains the customers alone and RCS recommends the customer maintain insurance in amounts sufficient to cover its risk.
